The Collect.

Be with us O Lord to assist and inspire us to ever march onward in development of spirit, and as we progress to share our enlightenment with others who wish to use our help, this we ask in the name of the Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle for the 2nd Sunday after Easter is from the recorded words of Lord Maitreya.

There is a veil that separates humanity from God. It is an energy veil that is a force field of mortal thought and feeling which humanity weave out of their own discord. This veil has become a wall of partition between the evolving soul of each of us and God. Thus the mortals barricaded themselves from the mercy of their own inner godliness. This energy veil has for centuries effectively deprived each person from the truth of their own being and of the presence of God. It is therefore ourselves that must rend the veil which is of our own making, and thereby allow the wisdom and the cosmic law to be imparted to us.

Here Endeth The Epistle.

The Gospel for the 2nd Sunday after Easter is from the writings of psychic Elizabeth Van Buren.

We are beginning to understand that The Christ Spirit entering the earth plane was able to work miracles because he was so in tune with his Father in Heaven. You people of humanity find it hard to believe that by simply tuning the mind to God you can become part of God; it is all too simple and you look for complicated answers to your problems believing the truth to be a great puzzle. Christ knew how to manipulate the forces, and by some he was called Lord of wind and water. Another of these forces is the Christ Love. This is not only for humanity, but belongs to all creation's creatures and planets. When you of humanity understand this force you will (if you wish) distribute healing forces to your fellow being. At this time earth will be a radiating pulsing globule of beauty, with us all basking in the Glory of God.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
