The Collect.

O Holy Spirit, we ask that your spirit enter us and sanctify us with your Holy light and raise us into the school of soul to develop high into the pattern that you would have us be, we ask this in the name of your example the Christed Lord. Amen.

The Epistle for Sexagesima is from the teacher Rabu.

The world is first of all the origin of faith, secondly of love, and thirdly of words of wisdom. Herein all life consists. The word of wisdom is like a grain of wheat. If anyone has sown it properly in good soil, they may have complete faith in its blooming. When it germinates, they love it since they see many grains in the place of one. There is now plenty to eat, and also plenty left to sow. This is the way it is possible to receive the key to Nirvanic bliss. But if you do not receive it by gnosis, you will not find it.

Here Endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel for Sexagesima is from the Esoteric Gospels of Truth.

Those who are to accept instruction, namely the living ones who are inscribed in the book of the living, are taught apart, alone, receiving tuition directly from the High Masters of learning, who in turn are directed by the Holy One. These pupils turn to their teacher again and again, and since the completion of the totality is in the Holy One, it is necessary for the totality to go upward to him. They who are not prepared to learn the wisdom of the gnostic do lack much indeed, for they lack that which could complete them.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
