The Collect

Most wonderful Lord, who this day gives us the powers of consecration to our Holy oils, send down your wonderful unselfish gifts to us as you unfailingly do, and let us be a channel of your divine light, to help in your quest to humanity, this we ask in thy Holy Name. Amen

Be with us Lord in all thy doings, and further us with thy continual help, that in all our works, begun, continued and ended in thee, we may glorify thy Holy name through the Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle for Maundy Thursday is from the Aquarian Gospel.

Woe unto you; for on your heads will come all the blood of the Holy Men who have been slain upon the earth. From the righteous Abel down to Zacharias the son of Barachias, who was slain in the Holy Place before the altar of the Lord. These things shall come upon this nation and the people of Jerusalem. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou cruel city of Jerusalem, that slays the prophets in the streets and kills the Holy Ones who God has sent you. I would have you as children in the fold of God; but you will not have it that way. You have rejected God, and now your house is desolate, and you shall not see me again till you can say "THRICE BLESSED IS THE SON OF MAN WHO COMES AS SON OF GOD".

Here Endeth The Epistle.

The Gospel for Maundy Thursday is from the Aquarian Gospel.

Jesus said: --- The hour has come; the son of man is ready to be glorified, and it cannot be otherwise. My soul is troubled now; what shall I say, and turned his eyes to heaven and said, Father God, I would not ask to be relieved of all the burdens I must bear; I only ask for strength and grace to bear the burdens no matter what they be. This is the hour for which I came to earth. O Father, glorify thy name. A voice seeming to come from heaven said: I have glorified my name and yours, and I will honour them again. Some exclaimed:-an angel spoke to him, but Jesus said, this voice was not for me; it was for you, that you might know that I come from God.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
