The Collect.

O Holy Creator, who does give your messenger the power over death, allow us to see the purpose and aim of this sacrifice, that we may fully understand the depth of your love for us, and so inspire within us the urge to follow your pathway to perfection, through the Christ our Lord. Amen.

Be with us O Lord in all thy doings, and further us with thy continual help, that in all our works, begun, continued and ended in thee, we may glorify thy Holy name through the Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle for Easter Day is from the Writings of Sir George Trevalyn.

A movable Easter has its inconveniences for a public holiday, and there have been pressures to fix it, wholly ignoring the fact that on Easter Sunday, intensified cosmic energies flow upon the earth. Easter is that moment in the year when the greatest event in recorded history took place, and death was redeemed by life. Naturally great festivals of Easter are celebrated finely and traditionally within the church. For those concerned with the spiritual awakening in the new age, it will also be celebrated as an inner festival, for it represents the transcending which must take place within the soul. At this time, the soul, buried in the tomb of the body and the senses, may actually re-awaken to the reality of spirit within all matter and within itself. Thus the Christ will resurrect the human heart.

The Gospel for Easter Day is from the words of Sanat Kumara.

Would the great creator of all send his son to die in despair and failure on the cross? This implies defeat. God makes no errors; we make the errors. Jesus came to earth to live, not die. Tell that to your churches. There is not a dead Christ. The church's entire Gospel is based on the fact that the Avatar died for them. The truth is that he lived for them. We should follow his teachings, his words, his life. Instead we live in the shadows of his death. We do not live his teachings, yet we call ourselves Christians. I am not a prophet of doom but a prophet of the facts. You are given your chance to follow the teachings of the Christed one. Do not doubt that The Christ lives, and if you follow faithfully you can live also.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
