The Collect

O loving God of all the Cosmos, allow us to place ourselves in your hands, for this is our choice entitled to us by the spiritual freedom we have been given; and as we dedicate ourselves to your care, guide us, guard us, keep us, on the path of light, until we can be at one with you through the Christ our Lord. Amen

The Epistle for the 4th Sunday after Easter is from the words of St Francis via Laurence Temple.

The time has come when the mysteries of the age shall be revealed to all who desire light upon their path, that they may approach the centre of all power and life. A new spirit is within the world and humanity is throwing off the reins and will no longer follow the blind leaders. Instruction will only be accepted from those who can perceive the invisible and hear the unspoken word, and who are filled with the spirit and speak with inner knowledge and have escaped from the bondage of creeds and the inherited beliefs of the past generations. Now each soul requires freedom for the growth of the new age, and strength to carry the burden of far greater responsibilities. The creative power is available to flow through all, and each can be a partaker in the divine plan and give what we can to the universal heritage.

The Gospel for the 4th Sunday after Easter is from the Words of the Master St Germaine.

I am a believer and teacher of the law of reincarnation. If it were not so I would say so. The law of the coming again and again of the soul is your cosmic justice. It is your opportunity to earn the salvation that is the ascension into the light. This is the goal of all true and honourable religions. It is the binding of the soul to God but in perfect freedom. Understand that this earth is intended to be governed by the souls of light, therefore any who would be true souls of this light take your place and stand for truth and spiritual freedom. Understand that it is movement to the God self within you that is your salvation in this age, and all the problems can be resolved if you will only take ten minutes each day to go within and find your own God self, which will link you permanently to the true Godhead.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
