The Collect.

O Merciful Lord, keep us under thy guidance and love, that by it we may ever have peace of spirit and Holy comfort, through the merits of the Christ Saviour. Amen.

The Epistle for the 5th Sunday after Trinity is from the messages of the ascended Master Kuan Yin.

When you feel condemned and unworthy, as though you were unable to accomplish anything that is of worth, remember to call forth the fires of mercy and say --- In the name of The Christ, I desire to make peace with my God this day. Give me the opportunity to right my every wrong. You will then know that the flame of forgiveness comes and is sustained by your own effort to right every wrong. When you have called upon the law of forgiveness, when you have gone to the Christ self who officiated as the priest at the altar of your heart, then be at peace.

Here Endeth The Epistle.

The Gospel for the 5th Sunday after Trinity is from the Master Danu.

Prepare the heart and mind to receive the very spirit of God. Prepare to judge yourself and to make amends for your prejudices, intolerances, fears, jealousy, envy, animosity and false pride. These are the errors of the flesh. It will be your undoing not to forgive. First you must forgive yourself, then forgive all others who have hurt you in the slightest. Bring peace into your home. Let this peace flow from your home into the world around you. Do not allow countries, religions, or anything to keep you from sending out the love of God. Be tolerant and kind to those who are different. Keep peace and love alive in your heart, your mind, your home, your every experience. The word for all time now is peace, and this is in being at one with the God essence.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
