The Collect.

O God we pray that you open our hearts to the spirit of wisdom and spiritual understanding, that we may ever be strong in your cause of spreading truth and wisdom to the Universe, thus showing divine beauty to all who would share with this, as did our Master Jesus The Christed One. Amen.

The Epistle for the 8th Sunday after Trinity is from the Book of Phillip.

The Logos said - Ignorance makes slaves, and true spiritual knowledge makes for freedom. When we recognise the truth we shall find the fruits of the truth in our hearts. If we unite with it, it will bring our fulfilment. Those who are in truth will be perfect when the truth is revealed. Wisdom is the great truth, and no ignorance can or will ever stand against it, for in the face of wisdom and truth, all of earth's bigotries and ignorance wilts, withers and dies.

Here Endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel for the 8th Sunday after Trinity is from the Aquarian Gospel.

Jesus was asked - What of wisdom, what have you to say about this? Jesus said - Wisdom is the consciousness that is everything, therefore it is humanity that is everything. God and human are but one; nothing is nothing; power is but an illusion. Heaven, Earth and Hell are not above, around, or below, but within one's self. Wisdom is the spark of God that resides in all people, waiting to be invited to join with their host, and then together going on to far greater and higher ways of life.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
