The Collect.

O Lord, bless us that we may abide for ever under the protection of your good providence and be filled with perpetual reverence and love for your Holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle for the 9th Sunday after Trinity is from the writings of the healer Alan Young.

Surrender to the will of God is the key to rapid spiritual growth. As we give up our own will, desire and ego satisfaction, so we become aware of God's will. If the phrase "SURRENDER TO THE WILL OF GOD" is a problem because of prior conditioning, try substituting the words "ALLOW THE ENERGY OF INFINITE LIFE TO FLOW". The two events, the surrender of personal will and the receipt of spiritual power, are always in balance and harmony. Therefore as we grow spiritually we are in full accord with God.

Here Endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel for the 9th Sunday after Trinity is from the works of Charles Fillmore.

A company of people gathered in the name of Jesus The Christed one can build a place in the ether and make it a continuous spiritual battery from which the rays of energy and spiritual substance can be radiated to believing minds anywhere on earth. The Christ mind will take up its abode in such a centre of spiritual energy and cooperate with other minds in broadcasting health, wealth, and spiritual understanding everywhere. These people gathered in the name of The Christ are lights that glow and glow with a perpetual current from the omnipresent energy. These people do not for one moment believe it is possible for the Christ power to fail them, and it is this confidence that opens even wider their human hearts and minds. This in turn ensures that the Christ rays may give them even greater capabilities.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
