The Collect.

O God of greatness and truth, teach us to expand our love within us, that we become worthy disciples to show love to the world in your name, guide us in this quest so we may follow the example of your Christed Avatar. Amen.

The Epistle for the 15th Sunday after Trinity is from the Gnostic Doctors via Leadbeater.

God is love, but love itself cannot be perfect unless it has those upon whom it can be lavished and by whom it can be returned. Therefore he put forth himself into matter and he limited his glory, in order that through this natural and slow process of evolution we might come into being; and we in turn according to his will, are to develop until we reach his own level, and then the very love of God itself will become more perfect. This is because it will be lavished on those, his own children, who will fully understand and return it, and so his great scheme will be realized and his will be done.

Here Endeth the Epistle.

The Gospel for the 15th Sunday after Trinity is from the Aquarian Gospel.

Jesus said - Is love a passion that is subject to the will of mankind? Can a man pick up his love, a woman hers as they would pick up precious gems, and lay it down, or give it out to anyone? Can love be bought or sold like sheep? No my friends; love is the power of God that binds souls to him; and there is no power on earth that can dissolve that bond of love, for naught can rend them asunder.

Praise Be to Thee O Christ.
